

To Our Friends.

DOMINICANA is written and published by the Novices. Its aim and scope is to prepare and perfect the youngest sons of Saint Dominic in that important branch of apostolic labor the Written Word. Our success depends in great measure upon the circulation which the little magazine obtains. Will you help us to expand? The cause is a worthy one. The subscription price is but fifty cents a year.

OUR gratitude is due to the Reverend Fathers J. H. Healy, O. P., J. B. Logan, O. P., H. J. Leonard, O. P., T. M. Schwertner, O. P., S. T. Lr., R. T. McAllester, O. P. and Mothers M. Amata, O. S. D. and M. Sixtus, O. S. D. for generous cash donations. We are also sincerely thankful to the Reverend J. T. McNicholas, O. P., S. T. Lr., for the encouragement and co-operation rendered us in spreading the new publication. Finally, we are indebted to the Very Reverend M. A. Waldron, O. P., S. T. M., for the new and splendid cut of our Master General.
