

CLOISTER & CHRONICLE

ST. JOSEPH'S PROVINCE

Cloister Sympathy

The Fathers and Brothers of the Province of St. Joseph extend their sympathy to the Rev. F. J. Twohig on the death of his brother; to the Rev. G. G. Scanlon on the death of his sister; to the Rev. J. S. O'Connell on the death of his mother; to the Rev. F. P. Kelly on the death of his aunt; to the Rev. Q. T. Shanley and to Brother Joseph Ryan on the death of their fathers.

Silver Anniversary

The members of St. Joseph's Province offer congratulations to the following Fathers who celebrated this year their twenty-fifth anniversary in the holy Priesthood: the Revs. C. G. Moore, Q. F. Beckley, D. M. Galliher, L. U. Cull, E. R. Craven.

Master of Sacred Theology

On May 16, in the city of Rome, Father Walter Farrell, Regent of Studies of the Province of St. Joseph, took his preliminary examination towards the highest degree the Dominican Order can give, that of Master of Sacred Theology. After he had passed the examination with the highest distinction, by special dispensation of His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, the degree itself of Master was immediately granted to Father Farrell. The Fathers and Brothers of the Province take great pleasure in congratulating Father Farrell upon this recognition of his high attainments.

Tonsure

On June 6, the Most Rev. James J. Hartley, D.D., Bishop of Columbus, bestowed tonsure on the theologians of St. Joseph's Priory, Somerset, Ohio. The ceremony took place in St. Joseph's Church. Those who received the tonsure are: Bros. Thomas Aquinas Dymek, Gregory Dymek, Bernard Malvey, Matthias Robinson, Augustine Gately, Matthew Cuddy, Philip Pendis, Bertrand Soeldner, Albert Rossetti, Norbert Morgenthaler, Raymond Maloney, Louis McQuillan, Jordan Reichert, David Burke, Damian Smith, Leo Kelly, Edward Dominic Garry, Valerian Lucier, Timothy Quinlan, Alphonsus Dolan, Pius Sullivan, Clement Johnston, Hyacinth Conway, Chrysostom Curran.

Porter and Lector

The above Brothers received the first two Minor Orders, those of Porter and Lector, on June 10, at Holy Trinity Church, Somerset, Ohio. Bishop Hartley conferred the Orders.

Consecration

On June 11, Very Rev. J. A. McHugh and Very Rev. C. J. Callan, were present at Lawrence, Mass., at the consecration of the Most Rev. Raymond A. Lane, M.M., Vicar Apostolic of Fushun, Manchukuo. Bishop Lane was one of the star students of Fathers McHugh and Callan from the beginning to the end of his seminary studies at Maryknoll. Bishop Lane is a member of the Third Order of St. Dominic. On August 4, the feast of our holy Founder, the Bishop was entertained by the Fathers at Holy Rosary Rectory, Hawthorne, N. Y.

Consultor The Curia of the Master General received on Monday, July 22, an official communication that the Holy Father had appointed the Very Rev. C. J. Callan a Consultor of the Pontifical Biblical Commission in Rome. The Vicar General sent official notice of the appointment to the Very Rev. T. S. McDermott, Provincial of St. Joseph's Province, and extended to Fr. Callan his personal hearty congratulations on this well-merited honor which reflects credit on the Order and on the Province. Father Callan is the second American to enjoy this particular honor, the first being the late Msgr. Grannan of the Catholic University of America.

Solemn Profession On August 16, Solemn Profession was made into the hands of the Very Rev. Adrian Theodore English, Prior of the College of the Immaculate Conception, Washington, D. C., by the following Brothers: Maurice Robillard, William Duprey, Regis Barron, Francis Kelly, Lawrence Hart, Richard Dolan, Nicholas Halligan. The vows were pronounced in the chapel of the Dominican House at Ocean City, Md.

Master of Students The Rev. Matthew E. Hanley has been appointed Master of Students at the Dominican House of Studies, Washington, D. C. Father Hanley attended Providence College, and entered the Order in 1922, making his novitiate at St. Joseph's Priory, Somerset, Ohio. He studied philosophy for two years at St. Rose Priory, Springfield, Ky., and for one year at the House of Studies at River Forest, Ill. He then took his theology at the House of Studies in Washington, where, in 1929, he was ordained to the holy Priesthood by Archbishop Curley. He was granted the degree of Lector in Sacred Theology in 1930. In 1932, he obtained the degree of Doctor of Philosophy at the Collegio Angelico, Rome. In September of that year he was sent to St. Mary's of the Springs College, where he has since taught as Professor of Economics and Political Science. Father Hanley takes the place of Father P. L. Thornton who is relinquishing the position of Master of Students because of ill health.

Farewell It is with deep regret that the Students at Washington bid Father Thornton good-bye. He has left to several classes the inspiring example of true Dominican life, and we are deeply disappointed in the loss of one whose guidance we had so keenly anticipated for the coming year. We pray that Father Thornton may enjoy better health and receive continued blessings from Our Blessed Lord.

The city of Milwaukee will have three groups of auditors.

SISTERS CHRONICLE

St. Catherine of Siena Convent, St. Catherine, Ky.

About 150 Sisters from the missions attended the summer school at St. Catherine which came to a close August 3. Among the faculty members was the Rev. R. G. Ferris, O.P., of St. Rose Priory.

On his extended trip across the United States from San Francisco, His Excellency, the Most Rev. J. Hedde, Apostolic Vicar of Indo-China, stopped for a day at St. Catherine, where he said Mass and gave the Sisters an interesting account of his work in his remote missions.

During the summer session Rev. F. N. Pitt, Supervisor of Schools in the Archdiocese of Louisville, gave an instructive address on the Parent Teachers organization. Also, Mr. Frank Cirillo, founder of the Cirillo School of Music of Brooklyn, N. Y., gave a series of instructions on the violin to the music teachers of the summer school. During his stay he gave a music recital, accompanied by his wife, a former graduate of St. Catherine.

A ten-day retreat, conducted by the Very Rev. H. J. McManus, O.P., Prior of St. Rose, opened on August 5. At the close on August 14, reception and profession of the postulants and novices took place.

On St. Dominic's Day Rev. J. R. Clark, O.P., officiated at a solemn high Mass. Two silver jubilarians, Sister Redempta and Sister Marie, were present.

Dominican Sisters of the Perpetual Rosary, Milwaukee, Wis.

Rev. W. P. Roney, O.P., of River Forest, Ill., replaced the Community's regular Chaplain from June 15-28, during which time Father Roney gave the Sisters a course of instruction and exercises in the Gregorian Chant.

On July 22, a profession ceremony took place. Sister Mary Catherine pronounced her first vows and Sister Mary Martin pronounced her perpetual vows. Very Rev. W. J. Brenner, Professor at St. Francis Seminary and Spiritual Director of the community, presided.

On the feast of St. Dominic, a solemn Mass was offered by Rev. R. Denis, O.M.Cap., assisted by Rev. N. Brust as deacon, and by Rev. J. Hass, P.S.M., as subdeacon. Rev. J. W. Curran, O.P., of River Forest, Ill., delivered the sermon.

The Dominican Sisters of the Sick Poor, New York, N. Y.

The Rev. P. J. Walsh, O.P., conducted the annual retreat.

On July 25, Sister Mary Assumpta departed to her eternal reward. May she rest in peace!

On the feast of our holy Father, St. Dominic, Sisters Margaret Mary, Antoninus, Philomena, Pius, Raymond, Lewis, and Immaculata celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their profession. The Right Rev. Monsignor Michael A. Reilly, V.F., presided at the ceremony.

Congregation of the Most Holy Cross, Everett, Wash.

The following Sisters celebrated their silver jubilee of religious profession at St. Dominic's on June 18, M. Anthony Maher, M. Vincent Maher, M. Albertina Dugan, M. Alphonsus Fortune, M. Bernardine Murphy, M. Teresa Mullen, Mary de Paul Ryan, and M. Benedicta Coty.

The annual laywomen's retreat was held at St. Dominic's June 26 to June 30. It was conducted by Rev. E. Sanguinetti, O.P. Seventy-six women attended the retreat and twenty-two were received as Dominican tertiaries.

In July, at the General Chapter, Mother Mary Frances was unanimously elected as Mother Prioress General for a second term.

In August, the Congregation observed the golden jubilee of the Sisters' coming to Washington State in 1890. The first group of pioneers left Holy Rosary Convent, New York, for Aberdeen, Washington, in August, 1890. The celebration will be held at St. Joseph's Hospital, Aberdeen, the cradle of the Order in the far Northwest.

Congregation of the Most Holy Rosary, Sinsinawa, Wis.

The Rev. F. N. Georges, O.P., and the Rev. J. S. Considine, O.P., conducted the two summer retreats at Saint Clare, July 26 and August 9, respectively.

The Rev. E. S. Murray, O.P., Chaplain, conducted the ceremony of final profession on August 5 for a group of thirty-nine Sisters. First profession was made by twenty-three novices on August 6.

Twenty-seven postulants were received to the holy habit on August 6. The Right Rev. Msgr. T. V. Shannon, of Chicago Ill., preached.

The diamond jubilee of Bethlehem Academy, Faribault, Minnesota, August 4, recalled the name of His Excellency, the Most Rev. Thomas L. Grace, O.P., second Bishop of St. Paul, who first invited the Sisters to make a foundation in his diocese. On the arrival of the pioneer band of five Sisters, August 3, 1865, in St. Paul, he conducted them by stage to Faribault, where on the feast of St. Dominic he named their first school Bethlehem. His fourth successor, His Excellency, the Most Rev. John Gregory Murray, Archbishop of St. Paul, pontificated at the jubilee Mass of thanksgiving.

Vacation schools for the teaching of religion were conducted in sixty-three rural and city parishes of the mid-West and western States. One hundred and forty Sisters were variously employed in this work.

Two Sisters accompanied three Rosary College student members of the Catholic Evidence Guild to Oklahoma in July, where, under the direction of the Rev. F. X. Neville, State Director of Catholic Action in Oklahoma, the students conducted the sixth annual street teaching campaign.

New schools to be opened in September will include St. Vincent Ferrer's School, River Forest, Ill., and St. Peter Claver's School, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

St. Mary of the Springs College, Columbus, Ohio

The Congregation celebrated on June 16 the seventieth anniversary of the religious profession of Sister Evangela Schilder; on the same day, the fiftieth of Sister Miriam Masterson; on Easter Sunday, the fiftieth of Sister Villana Hokins. The twenty-fifth anniversaries of Sister Aloyse Fitzpatrick, Prioress of St. Mary of the Springs, and seven other Sisters, were duly celebrated.

The annual retreats were conducted by Rev. J. J. Welsh, O.P., and by Rev. V. C. Donovan, O.P. At the close of the retreats eight novices were admitted to first profession and sixteen postulants were received to the habit.

The community was honored by visits from His Excellency, the Most Rev. Michael A. O'Connor, O.P., the Rev. J. F. Monroe, O.P., and the Rev. T. D. Chang, O.P.
