OF THE
ORDER OF PREACHERS
OF THE
PROVINCE OF ST. ALBERT THE GREAT

"It is Jesus Christ who lives and acts in the priest, and this is why holy and noble enterprises expand and grow to be great agencies for good under his guidance and influence. He communicates to them the spirit of life. On the other hand, all institutions religious in character, all moral and philanthropic associations, not touched by the hand of the priest and vivified by his breath, languish, wither and die. Works of charity cannot exist without him; the unfortunate must have his assistance, and his providential care in their regard is visible to all the world. It is Jesus Christ who lives and acts in the priest. This is why he has power to reform and make perfect, not only individuals, but entire nations, for his is preeminently a civilizing influence."

Jesus Living in the Priest,
by the Rev. P. Millet, S.J.
