
Born on August 6, 1888, in Gilbertville, Mass., he was one of six children. His early education was acquired at St. Aloysius’ School in Gilbertville; his high school training at Hardwick High School, Hardwick, Mass. After attending St. Laurent College, Montreal, he entered the Order of Preachers, receiving the habit at St. Joseph’s Priory on October 2, 1909. Pronouncing his simple vows on October 3, 1910, he was sent to the House of Studies in Washington, where he completed his philosophical and theological studies. In the chapel of the House of Studies, Father Moore was ordained on June 23, 1915, by the Most Rev. Archbishop John Bonzano, then Apostolic Delegate. In the year following ordination, Father Moore received the Baccalaureate in Canon Law at the Catholic University of America.

In 1916, Father Moore was assigned to St. Vincent Ferrer’s Priory, where he remained until his enlistment as a chaplain in the United States Army in March, 1918. For valor under fire during World War I, he was decorated with the Croix de Guerre by the French government. After the war he was assigned to St. Peter’s Parish in Memphis until 1920, when he was sent to Aquinas College, Columbus, Ohio. Completing his teaching career in 1927, Father Moore in the years following served successively in Holy Name Parish, Kansas City, Mo.; St. Thomas’, Zanesville, Ohio; St. Dominic’s, Washington, D. C. and St. Antoninus’, Newark, N. J. In 1933, he took up the work to which he was devoted until his death—the chaplaincy of the cloistered Dominican nuns. The first scene of his labors was the Monastery of the Rosary Shrine at Summit, N. J. In 1947, when the Monastery of Our Lady of Grace was established at North Guilford, Connecticut, Father Moore was sent there as chaplain. Here he ministered to the spiritual needs of the community until his death.

At St. Mary’s Church, New Haven, Conn., on May 14, 1949, a Solemn Mass of Requiem was celebrated. The celebrant of the Mass was Rev. J. T. Fitzgerald, O.P.; Rev. Q. F. Beckley, O.P. was deacon, and Rev. J. R. Caien, O.P., subdeacon. The eulogy was preached by Rev. W. G. Moran, O.P. In addition to the many Dominican and diocesan priests, the Right Reverend Msgr. John F. Callahan, Vicar General of the diocese of Hartford, assisted at the Mass. At the grave, in the Dominican plot of St. Lawrence Cemetery in New Haven, the Very Rev. Vincent R. Burnell, O.P., Prior of St. Mary’s, conducted the final absolution.

Dominicana extends sympathy to the brothers and sisters of Father Moore. May he rest in peace.
