

DOMINICAN CALENDAR AND INDULGENCES, 1920

JANUARY

Dedicated to the Holy Name

1st, Thur. New Year's Day. Circumcision of Our Lord. Holy Day of Obligation. Feast-day of the Confraternity of the Holy Name. General absolution with plenary indulgence. Indulgences: 1. Plenary for Tertiaries, who, having received the sacraments, visit a Dominican church, or one having a chapter of Tertiaries, and there pray for the Pope's intention. Those unable to receive the sacraments but fulfilling the other conditions gain a partial indulgence of 7 years and 7 quarantines. If the above churches do not exist, the parish church may be visited. 2. Plenary for members of Living Rosary Society who say one decade of Rosary daily for one month and fulfil the usual conditions for gaining a plenary indulgence, i. e., receive the sacraments, visit a church and pray for the Pope. 3. Partial indulgence of 30 years and 30 quarantines for Tertiaries and for Rosarians who visit five altars of any church (in a church where there are not this number, five visits to one or more altars will suffice) and pray for the Pope. 4. Plenary and partial indulgences for all the faithful. 5. The faithful in general may gain an indulgence of 352 years and 105 quarantines, if they visit a Dominican church or a church of any of the other Mendicant Orders, and there say three times in honor of the most Blessed Trinity the "Our Father" the "Hail Mary" and the "Glory be to the Father."

2d, Fri. Octave of St. Stephen, Protomartyr. First Friday of the month.

3d, Sat. Octave of St. John the Evangelist. First Saturday of the month. Plenary indulgence for all the faithful, granted by Pope Pius X, to increase devotion to the Immaculate Mother of God and make reparation for insults offered to her. Cc.

reception of sacraments on the first Saturday of the month, prayers in honor of Mary Immaculate and prayers for the Pope's intention.

4th, Sun. Octave of Holy Innocents. First Sunday of the month. Indulgences: Four plenary indulgences for Rosarians, who, having received the sacraments, fulfil the required conditions, namely: 1. By visiting the church or chapel of the Rosary, and there praying for the intention of the Holy Father. 2. By being present at the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament in any church where the Rosary Society is established and there praying for the Pope's intentions. 3. By attending the Rosary procession, praying for the Pope's intentions and making a visit to the Rosary altar or chapel. 4. By saying the entire Rosary of fifteen decades for the intention of the triumph of Holy Church and visiting a public church or chapel. It is to be noted that Rosarians who are travelling, or engaged in actual employment (e. g., soldiers in actual service) and unable to make the visit, can gain the indulgence for the recitation of the entire Rosary; the sick, however, by reciting one-third part of the Rosary before an image of the Blessed Virgin. Partial indulgence of 7 years and 7 quarantines for Rosarians and all the faithful who attend the Rosary procession.
