

SPIRITUAL TESTAMENT

PÈRE LAGRANGE

I declare before God that it is my intention to die in the Holy Catholic Church to which I have always belonged with my whole heart and soul since the day of my baptism, and to die there faithful to my vows of poverty, of chastity, and of obedience, in the Order of Saint Dominic. To that end I commend myself to my good Saviour Jesus and to the prayers of His most holy Mother who has always been so good to me. I declare also most expressly that I submit to the judgment of the Apostolic See all that I have written. I believe that I can add that I have always had the intention in all my studies, of contributing to the good—I mean to the reign of Jesus Christ, to the honor of the Church, to the good of souls.
